

Overview of the Completion and Compliance Inspection:

Properties in the City of Palos Verdes Estates and the Miraleste section of the City of Rancho Palos Verdes are subject to recorded deed restrictions. The Palos Verdes Homes Association is responsible for the enforcement of these restrictions. We believe it is in the best interest of a prospective buyer to request the seller that a Completion and Compliance Inspection be ordered on the property they are in escrow. This inspection will determine whether the home is in compliance with the Palos Verdes deed restrictions and if not, what are the non-compliant items. A fee will be charged to perform this inspection and there may be some additional fees due for "after the fact" As-Built construction. Failure to follow these recommendations will result in the new owner assuming all non-compliant conditions, as well as the obligation to correct any violation which may exist.

Overview of the Completion and Compliance Inspection:

- Can only be ordered by current homeowner, listing agent or escrow officer.
- Inspection fee is per PVHA Fee Schedule. There may be more fees due after inspection for as-built non-complying items.
- Buyer is aware that they will become responsible for all non-compliant conditions once escrow closes.
- Allows seller and their agent to disclose all non-compliant conditions which they may or may not have knowledge of.
- During the inspection photos are taken of all exterior elevations of the house and front, side and rear yards (the inside of house is not inspected).
- These photos are compared to the existing approved plans at the Palos Verdes Homes Association verifying that construction matches the plans.
- Further research is done by reading the historical minutes and the documents in the master file for the inspected house.
- A report is written with the findings of the Completion and Compliance inspection and forwarded to the person who ordered the report. It is up to them to disseminate the report to appropriate parties.
- If there are non-compliant items found during the inspection, once the as-built fees are paid, the items are reviewed in the weekly Art Jury meeting. Three things can happen:
 1. The item can be accepted
 2. The item can be accepted until the time of a future remodel
 3. The item will need to be corrected within a given time period
- The result of this inspection does not affect escrow closing.
